

SEPTEMBER-OCTOBER 2012

VERANDA

EXPRESS YOUR STYLE

Live With What You Love

FOR THE HOME

1. The silhouette of Venini's luminous Veronese Vase was inspired by the Renaissance painter of the same name. $2,340; venini.com.

2. Barber Osgerby's marble Bottle Table is a pedestal form. $21,559; 212-966-0669.

3. The Vento Sconce by Seguso is made by master crafters using centuries-old techniques. To see the trade; segusointeriors.com.

4. Carlo Moretti's Bora Handblown Lamp showcases marano glassmaking traditions through a contemporary lens. $132; 212-769-2510.

5. Anichini Bed Linens can come with hand-embroidered borders. $3,185 per set; anichini.com.

6. Tuscan porcelain workshop Richard Ginori has been producing tableware like this shapely Coffee Pot for almost three centuries.

$190; richardginori1735usa.com.

7. Buccellati's sterling silver Venus Dish is one of several shell designs by the venerable company. From $275; buccellati.com.

8. De Padova's wicker-and-bamboo Ungaro Chair is sophisticated yet relaxed. $1,180; depadova.com.

9. Armani Leather Log Holder is handsome enough for all sorts of storage needs. $2,430; armani.com.

10. The swirling patterns on Vietri's Blu Bianco Terra Cotta Plates were inspired by vintage Italian silks. From $192 for a set of four; vietri.com.

11. Fornasetti's whimsical Umbrella Stand is printed and lacquered by hand. $1,250; barneys.com.

12. The botanical motif on Pratesi's Fiore in Volo Pillow Sham has a delightfully expressive style. $2,120 for a full king set; pratesi.com.

