

House Beautiful

the MAGIC of SMALL SPACES!

EASY WAYS TO ADD COLOR

MAKE THE MOST OF EVERY SQUARE FOOT

THE BEST
DESIGNER TIPS

TABLESCAPE

SERENA DUGAN

A cofounder of Serena & Lily, she believes a happy life should be an everyday experience—beginning at home.

Produced by
CATHERINE LEE DAVIS

Photograph by JAMES BAIGRIE

"A relaxed outdoor table setting creates an environment where people want to sit awhile and enjoy one another's company."

—SERENA DUGAN

Blue Glass Accents

JUGS

Group a trio of bottles for a colorful centerpiece. Recycled-Glass Jugs, 4" DIA x 11" H, $19; 5" DIA x 18" H, $29. westelm.com.

PITCHER

This vintage-inspired piece makes even plain water elegant. Hobnail Pitcher, 4" DIA x 9" H, $78. anthropologie.com.

VASES

The swirls of these Murano glass pieces capture sunlight. Twist Vase, 8" DIA x 7" H, $410; Round Twist Vase, 7" DIA x 9" H, $566. seguso.com.

CANDLEHOLDER

Scatter a few votives across the table for a touch of color. Decorative Bubble Glass Candleholder, 3½" DIA x 3¼" H, $20. blisshomeanddesign.com.

ABOVE: "The glass bottles are functional, but in turquoise they really pair beautifully with the patterned runner and make it pop," Dugan says. Montauk Table Runner, $38; Cadiz Placemats and Napkins, $78 and $68 for four; Durban Dinner and Salad Plates, $148 and $98 for four; and Bistro Bottles, $98 for six; serenaandlily.com. For additional accessories, go to housebeautiful.com/resources.