

Design news

Stylish stemware: our top five

Whether you're a gold lover, a die-hard traditionalist or in search of something more cutting edge, there is something for everyone in our selection of gorgeous new stemware. Here's our top five.

Katie Law | Publish Date: 19 December 2014

For gold lovers: Seguso

£160 each

One of the most revered and oldest Venetian glassblowing families still makes the most beautiful stemware on the island of Murano, using age-old techniques. Ca' D'Oro, named after a Venetian palace and meaning gold twist is one of several designs. A set of four costs £640. Visit Seguso.

3/5 < >

